

Historical Elegance

Braeburn - The Solomon Ruse House, circa 1860

38992 Paynes Lane, Hamilton, VA 20158

Braeburn is a gracious estate replete with a host of amenities not often found on such an historic property; it is superbly designed for large and small scale entertaining. The Solomon Ruse House is situated on nearly eight acres, surrounded by a lush profusion of mature trees and enjoys a level of privacy unexpected for a location so convenient to the Rt. 7 and Dulles Airport.

Braeburn's main house and grounds have undergone meticulous restoration and expansions to include a formal garden, heated pool and a 2,700 square foot addition containing an exceptional kitchen, large columned portico, stately great room and a four-car garage. The charming two bedroom guest cottage was renovated in 2006 and connects to the main house by the formal garden and pool. Braeburn also boasts a three bedroom tenant house; pond, circa 1800 spring house and original bank barn which is currently undergoing restoration and can be customized to suit the purchaser's needs.
